

VOSKRESENIJE
The Resurrection Choir of St Petersburg

By very popular request the Russian Choir made a return visit to St Peter's Church on 17th October. They performed a fabulous concert, even better than last year, and of course it was enhanced by the wonderful acoustics of the Church. I think everyone agreed it was a fantastic evening, especially with the contrast between the sacred music in the first half and folk songs after the interval.

St Peter's much appreciated the help and support given in so many ways by so many people: those who hosted the choir, who catered for the choir, who helped with front of house, who served interval drinks, who erected the staging, who produced the posters and programme, who organised ticket sales on the night and collected the money, and finally, but by no means least, Bradleys Estate Agents Shaldon, for being our 'Box Office'. It takes a lot of effort to put on such an event and we are truly grateful to everyone who made it possible.

The bad news is that they are not returning next year, but may do so in 2019.

It was a truly memorable evening - and it raised £486.06 for St Peter's which will go towards improving the lighting.
